itinerary

● Day 1 : Casablanca Arrival

Upon arrival in Casablanca, claim your bags and proceed towards arrival hall. Our representative will meet you and assist you with your transfer to hotel. (Standard check-in time is 3:00 pm). And will assist you with a smooth check-in and review your itinerary with you to confirm your tour and transfer times. In the afternoon, proceed on an orientation tour of Casablanca. The tour will include an outside visit to the splendid Hassan II Mosque: a breath-taking landmark of Casablanca with the tallest minaret at 210m. Continue along the Ain Diab Corniche. Then on to Habous Charter, the oldest area in Casablanca and the setting of the Royal Palace before continuing to the Mohammed V Square. Time permitting: Wander around the Old Medina and city walls. Enjoy a Moroccan coffee and maybe start working on your bargaining skills. Finish the day with a walk along the Corniche and watch the locals enjoy games of football on the beach during sunset.

(Overnight in Casablanca).

● Day 2 : Casablanca / Rabat / Chefchaouen

After breakfast, check-out and travel to Rabat via el Mohamadia, in the capital of Morocco we will visit Hassan Tower, the minaret of this mosque has never been finished but is the symbol of this city. We also visit the Kasbah des Ouduias. Then in the afternoon we make our way across the Rif Mountains to the stunning town of Chefchaouen, blue lime-washed houses, busy squares, steep alleyways, the best way to discover this old town is to wander around it.

(Overnight in Chefchaouen).

● Day 3 : Chefchaouen

After breakfast, we will start exploring Chefchaouen. It is a small charming, clean and fresh town. you'll stroll around the old Medina with its old restored kasbah, Plaza Utah Hammam, the square at the heart of the town is really an ideal place to relax. with its steep, narrow cobbled streets and white washed walls, blue doors, windows and mountains as a backdrop makes from Chefchaouen a wonderful place for fascinating pictures. After lunch (own account), you will see the natural spring water of Ras Ima. Unlike other parts of Morocco, this town was occupied by Spain. Therefore, there is much influence of the Spanish and Moorish culture. You will have an opportunity to meet with locals, wander in the souks (markets) and enjoy this amazing town.

(Overnight in a Chefchaouen).

● Day 4 : Chefchaouen / Volubilis / Meknes / Fes

After breakfast, we depart to the Roman ruins of Volubilis. This partly excavated Berber and Roman city is on UNESCO World Heritage Site. We will explore the breathtaking archaeological ruins of the Roman. This ruin is an example for the different kinds of civilizations that made of Morocco their home and are still present in cultural traditions. Then we stop in the sacred town of Moulay Idriss

l, the burial town of the founder of the first Moroccan kingdom and is a historic mosque and its famous place. Then we continue our journey to the medina of Meknes, the walls of this medina are grant. It is home of the splendid mausoleum of Moulay Ismail. We will explore Bab Iekhmis, then the Jewish quarter called El Mellah and the Sahrij Swani. This is one of the prestigious Historic Monuments of Meknes. This artificial lake is also impressive by its size, about 148.75 m2 by 319 m2. The lake was used to store food and water for the "black Army" of the sultan Moulay Ismael. We can visit the mausoleum of the sultan and admire the Arab-Andalusian style and Place El-Hedime [Square of Ruins] which links the medina and the Kasbah. Spend some time exploring this charming City. Late afternoon, we head to Fes. Arrive in Fes and spend the evening at leisure.
(Overnight in Fes).

● Day 5 : Fes

Today you will discover the city of Fes, the spiritual and cultural heart of Morocco; vibrant, noisy, fascinating and overwhelming – a visual and pungent feast for the senses. Head into the old city, known locally as Fes el Bali, arguably the world's most fascinating and confounding old city. Medieval Fes was one of the world's great centres of education and culture, both Islamic and Jewish. Its religious institutions and libraries are legendary, its mosques of great renown. Walk through the twisting streets and alleyways, passing donkeys piled high with goods, and explore the specialty sections that divide the souk. Filled with historic khans, medresses and dye-pits, stalls loaded with fruits, herbs and soups, and where the squawk of chickens, smell of spice and sound of hammering of copper fills the air, it's not hard to imagine yourself back in the Middle Ages. Spend the day exploring the old city, visiting, Medresse el Attarine, the tanneries and the splendid Fondouk Nejjarine, a beautifully restored 18th century inn. Return to your hotel in the late afternoon and perhaps spend the evening relaxing in this calming oasis, away from the buzz of the medina.

(Overnight in Fes)

● Day 6 : Fes / Ifran / Midelt / Ziz valley / Merzouga

After breakfast, we depart to Erfoud. A long the way, you'll pass via Azrou Cedar forest and stop for monkeys pictures. On the way, stop at Ifrane for some pictures. Carry on through the High Atlas Mountains and the valley of Ziz. We pass Errachidia, the city and capital of the province. You enjoy the picturesque valley of Ziz valley and Tafilalet oasis of palm trees. Continue along the palm groves and pass the city of Erfoud. Reach the little town of Merzouga and check into the hotel.

● Day 7 : Merzouga

Today's itinerary reconciles with Fez Merzouga long distance. Time will be devoted to explore around ERG Chebbi. We tour the Sandy dunes of Erg Chebbi that stretches in the Sahara desert across 30 km long and 10 km width. It is a gift from nature, and it inspires locals and guests alike. Sunrise and sunset are among the highlights. In the same day, we meet nomad families who take care of their animals. They live in nomad tents and they depend on grazing to win a living. We head to Rissani to visit the local market and to explore examples of ancient villages. Sleep well!

(Overnight in Merzouga)

itinerary

• Day 8 : Merzouga / Tinghir / Ouarzazate

After breakfast, depart to Tinghir via Rissani and Tinjdad. Tinghir is a gorgeous, 40km oasis, which boasts one of the largest palm groves in the country. Enjoy walking at the famous Todra Gorge, a 300m wall, carved deep into the High Atlas Mountains. Leave to Dades and its charming valley. Continue along to Kelaat M'Gouna, a large village famous for cultivating roses. Expect to find many fine, rose-infused products there. Transfer to Ouarzazate, also known as "Morocco's Hollywood," for dinner and overnight.

(Overnight in ourzazate)

• Day 9 : Ouarzazate / Ait Ben Haddou / Imlil

Enjoy the city tour of Ouarzazate, beginning with the Taourirt Kasbah. The latter is considered one of the most beautiful Kasbahs in the country. Next, visit the film studios, where some of the most famous desert landscapes were and are still being shot. Continue on to the spectacular fortress of Ait Ben Haddou, the iconic landscape immortalized in such films as, Lawrence of Arabia and Gladiator. Later leave for Imlil, a small village in the high Atlas Mountains of Morocco. We will drive through the Ounila Valley that leads along the stunning road to the Kasbah of Ait Benhaddou, the oldest and most famous Kasbah in Morocco and a UNESCO World Heritage site. In the afternoon we reach Imlil and check in at our hotel. This afternoon is free for your personal activities. Your personal guide will be happy to accommodate any of your requests.

• Day 10 : Imlil / Marrakech

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel. Optional: This morning we will proceed for a short and easy a 2 hour hike through the valley, through olive groves, little villages and fields, and some small waterfalls. Your guide will talk to you along the way about life of Moroccan people growing up in the mountains and other interesting facts. Later return back to your hotel. After lunch we will leave for Marrakech for overnight. Upon arrival check in at your hotel.

(Overnight in Marrakech).

• Day 11 : Marrakech

After breakfast at the hotel, we set off on an exhilarating sightseeing tour of Marrakech with our guide and driver. during your 5-hour tour, you see the major highlights of the ancient city. We begin our walking tour in the old quarter of Marrakech where we visit the 19th century Bahia Palace, covered with colorful tile work, and see its eight-hectare gardens with fountains. We then proceed to Saadian Tombs - marble tombs for the Saadian dynasty. Accessible only through a small passage in the Kasbah Mosque, the tombs were neglected until aerial photography exposed them in 1917. Our next stop is El Badi Palace located nearby and believed to have contained more than 350 opulent rooms, in addition to a large pool, sweeping courtyard, and several gardens. The pieces from the El Badi Palace were used to create a new palace in Meknes, leaving just the shell of the palace behind. Continue to the souks, the largest you can find in Morocco. We suggest you try haggling as it is an inherent part of Moroccan trading culture. In the afternoon, we venture into the new city and visit the Majorelle Gardens - a magical petite garden estate designed by Jacques Majorelle and maintained by Yves Saint Laurent. After the tour, we return to our hotel and have the rest of the day free.

(Overnight in Marrakech)

● Day 12 : Marrakech / Essaouira

This itinerary combines the mysterious allure of Marrakech and the relaxed coastal vibe of Essaouira. Afternoon, you'll be transferred to Essaouira and this takes around 3 hours drive. Essaouira is a windy town that gives out to the Atlantic ocean with a harbour. The place is known as a windy city and has a rich history. In this stage of your 16 DAY MOROCCO TOUR, will change the busiest atmosphere of Marrakech with the vibes of Essaouira. You enjoy your time walking in the Medina and taste a savourous fish dish in the port.

● Day 13 : Essaouira

Take a free and relaxed day at Essaouira.

● Day 14 : Essaouira / Eljadida / Casablanca
